

MEDIA RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 2010

NEW APPOINTMENTS TO DIETITIANS' BOARD

Australia's peak nutrition body, the Dietitians Association of Australia (DAA), recently announced the appointment of four Board members – Margaret Allman-Farinelli, Jennifer Savenake, Roslyn Giglia and Danielle Gallegos.

Margaret, Jennifer and Roslyn have previously served on the DAA Board. Margaret Allman Farinelli is Associate Professor in Clinical Nutrition and Dietetics at the University of Sydney, Ms Savenake works in food policy and regulation at Food Standards Australia New Zealand, and Dr Giglia is a Research Fellow at the Curtin University of Technology.

And DAA welcomed its newest Board member Dr Gallegos, who is a Senior Lecturer at the School of Public Health at the Queensland University of Technology.

They will join DAA President Julie Dundon and the current Directors on the DAA Board:

- Kim Crawley, The Canberra Hospital
- Mary Hannan-Jones, Queensland University of Technology and Queensland Health
- Elizabeth Kellett, Flinders Medical Centre
- Claire Palermo, Monash University

Associate Professor Allman Farinelli was elected Vice-President by the Board. DAA President Julie Dundon thanked outgoing Board members Brooke Kimberley and Natasha Meerding for their contribution to the Association.

For further information or to organise an interview, contact Holly Smith, Dietitians Association of Australia, on 0409 661 920.

Note to Editors: The Dietitians Association of Australia (DAA) is the professional body representing dietitians nationally. Accredited Practising Dietitian (APD) is the only national credential recognised by the Australian Government, Medicare, the Department of Veterans Affairs and most private health funds as the quality standard for nutrition and dietetics services in Australia. For more information visit www.daa.asn.au

ENDS